concerts on the cafe terraces. The green surroundings of Vaison-la-Romaine, where vineyards mingle with forests, have earned this charismatic town the label of “Les 100 Plus Beaux Détours de France” label. Experience life with grace in Provence. Absorb the art of living “à la Provençale” and accept the invitation to linger and relax in the shady squares.

The upper town of Vaison la Romaine, perched on the edge of the cliff, fortiﬁed by a double defensive wall and overlooked by the feudal castle. Enjoy the tranquility of a small country town, with its old winding streets with their evocative names – Rue des Fours, (Ovens Street), Rue du Pigeonnier (Pigeon Street), Rue des Hallebardiers (Barracks Street), Rue du Vieux Marché (Old Market Street), Rue du Douanier (Customs Street). During the 16th and 17th centuries, buildings sprang up in the valley alongside the Roman bridge. But it was in the 19th century, due to urban development, that the population migrated towards the lower town, on the site of the Gallo-Roman city.

A BIT OF HISTORY...

During the second half of the 12th century, the town was plunged on the orders of the Count of Toulouse, because of a disagreement with the Bishop about their respective possessions. These disagreements drove the population to gradually abandon the medieval town situated in the valley around the cathedral and the episcopal palace, and find protection under the high walls of the castle built on the heights, near the Counts Castle.

During the 16th and 17th centuries, buildings sprang up in the valley alongside the Roman bridge. But it was in the 19th century, due to urban development, that the population migrated towards this lower town, on the site of the Gallo-Roman city.

PUYMIN ROMAN SITE

ARCHAEOLOGICAL EXCAVATIONS

When walking through the Puymin site, you are in a part of the authentic Roman city, with the usual streets and shopping districts, the "typical" Roman architecture with its monastic, the "Sanctuaire des Apôtres" to a public measurement set in a large, colonnaded garden, and splendid antique houses. The Puymin Latin house, covering 190 square metres, was possibly the house of the Maus, an important family from Vasio, with its diningroom (triclinium), banqueting room, tower (Maus), and peristyle. The "Maison aux Oiseaux", 13th century hostel, covers 100 square metres, on three levels.

THE SAINT-QUENNICH CHAPEL

One of the most beautiful examples of Provençal Romanesque art. Depicted by magnificent marble models, the Chapel has a curious triangular apse. Dedicated to the Virgin Mary of the Chan, it was built in the second half of the 12th century on a site which during the Roman era was occupied by a monastery. Return the fine decoration of the columns and pilions, which are crowned by magnificent capital enwrapped with antefixes, troughs, and which support an ornate antique entablature with a frieze, beneath the cornice.

THE CATHEDRAL CLOISTER

Dating from the 11th and 12th centuries, this cloister, with its pergola, arcade and great fountain, with its 35 square meters full of sculptures, is one of the wake Columbier and capital, was at the heart of the building by the Cours des Fossés. Inside, the several stone elements include a fragment of a channel, with restorations made from the 14th century with engravings of the twelve Apostles, and a double sided cross, (Christ and the Virgin). Canons lived. Inside, the carved stone elements include a fragment of a chancel, a marble sarcophagus from the 4th century with engravings of the Twelve Apostles, and a double sided cross, (Christ and the Virgin).

NOTRE-DAME DE NAZARETH

This baroque masterwork, composed of 81 blocks of granite engraved with signs and symbols in the language of the New European Cities of Cathedrals, was created after the flood of 1992. This contemporary installation borders 1500 square metres of giant plantations and extends into a fitness trail, an orienteering trail and children's park with climbing wood structures, making this an very apenine place area.
